Patriot of the Month; June 2009
Conrad L. Hudson

The Missouri State Society NSDAR is pleased to honor Conrad L. Hudson of St. Louis, Missouri as a Patriot of the Month for June of 2009.

Conrad served from January 9, 1956 to January 8, 1960 in the U.S. Air Force, 815 Air Base GP. He was stationed at Parks AFB in California, Sheppard AFB in Texas and Forges AFB in Kansas.

Conrad received the following honors and citations:

- Letter of Achievement USAF
- Supervisory Award, City of St. Louis
- PMHA, Department of Agriculture Women's Award

After his discharge from the Air Force, Conrad completed his college degree from Southeast Missouri State University. He and his wife had two children; a son and a daughter. His career was with the U. S. Government with the General Accounting Office, now the Government Accountability Office, and with the Farmer's Home Administration of the Department of Agriculture. He began his career with the General Accounting Office as an auditor and was promoted to Audit Manager. Later, he transferred to the Farmers Home Administration as a Supervisory Systems Accountant and was promoted to the Director, Systems Requirements and Design Division, for their computer systems.

Conrad presents programs on his favorite hobby; genealogy. He has been the President of the Hudson Family Association and has written articles for their publication. He was a supportive committee member of the Scott County Family History Book and is currently assisting in the publication of the book on One-Room Schools in Scott County, Missouri. He also edits the Scott County Historical Society Newsletter and is currently writing an article for the publication.

The members of King's Highway Chapter sponsored Conrad as a Patriot of the Month and thank him for his service to our country.
