

Missouri State Society
Daughters of the American Revolution

Patriot of the Month, September 2007
Major Ross V. Robey US Army (Ret.)

Ross Robey graduated from Southeast Missouri State University, Cape Girardeau, MO, with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. He was employed as a Youth Employment Counselor with responsibility for Scott and Stoddard counties.

Ross joined the US Army in 1981. After basic training and while stationed at Fort Benning, GA, he completed Airborne School and Officer Candidate School in 1982; Ranger School and Infantry Officer Basic Course in 1983; and Infantry Officer Advanced Course in 1986. He completed Air Assault School at Fort Campbell, KY, in 1987; Combined Arms Services and Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, KS, in 1991; and Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, KS, in 1996.

From 1990-1993, Major Robey served as Post Adjutant and Observer Controller for the 7th Army Training Command, Combat Maneuver Training Center in Hohenfels, Germany.

From 1993-1996, Major Robey served as Chief Infantry Advisor for the 5th Army at Fort Riley, KS. The 5th Army is the primary reserve component of deployable National Guard forces in the states of Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas. In 1996, Major Robey was the Senior Project Officer for the Battle Command Battle Lab, US Army Combined Arms Command at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

From 1999-2001, Major Robey served as Training/Assistant Professor of Military Science at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, MO, where he was responsible for recruiting, mentoring, and advising Army ROTC cadets.

In 2001, Major Robey became the JROTC instructor at Charleston High School, in Charleston MO.

Annette Robertson and the members of King's Highway Chapter NSDAR are proud to nominate Major Ross V. Robey for Patriot of the Month. Annette wrote that Major Robey is an outstanding JROTC instructor.