PATRIOT OF THE MONTH

Tamra J. Scheibelhofer

Tamra J. (T.J.) Scheibelhofer was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Missouri Air National Guard in May 1998. She completed Undergraduate Pilot Training in the U.S. Air Force and then became a C-130 copilot.

T.J. gained training and experience flying the C-130 in the United States, Europe, and Central and South American. She was activated into the U.S. Air Force in March, 2003, and deployed to the Mideast, specifically, Saudi Arabia. While there she flew numerous missions to Baghdad, Iraq and other locations throughout the region. In December 2003, she was redeployed to Uzbekistan. She was released from the U.S. Air Force in March 2004 to return to duty with the Missouri Air National Guard's 139th Airlift Wing in St. Joseph, Missouri.

T.J. was ready, willing and able when called to active duty for the purpose of deployment to the Mideast. Her attitude was, "This is what I have been trained to do and what I volunteered for in the beginning."

During this extensive and dangerous deployment, her husband, Christopher, has been extremely supportive keeping the home fires burning and caring for Nathan, their 3-year-old son. They have since had a baby girl, Claire, on October 15.

T.J. has received the following awards and decorations:

- ◇ Air Medal (2)
- ◇ Aerial Achievement Medal
- ◇ Air Force Outstanding Unit Award
- ◇ National Defense Service Medal
- ◇ Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal
- ◇ Air Force Expeditionary Service Ribbon
- ◇ Air Force Longevity Service
- ◇ Air Force Training Ribbon
- ◇ Missouri National Guard Expeditionary Ribbon

T.J. is a Junior member of the Platte Purchase MSSDAR chapter. Regina Davenport and the members of Platte Purchase are honored to nominate one of their own as MSSDAR's Patriot of the Month.
