Ben entered the United States Air Force in 1970 completing basis training at Lackland Air Force Base, TX. Following his deployment to Vietnam, Ben was stationed at Elgin Air Force Base, FL serving as a film editor. Part of his work was to produce military films which described the latest development in classified weapons. After his enlistment ended, he re-enlisted in the United States Army serving for three years in West Germany with the 81st Field Artillery, 56th Brigade.

Ben was honorably discharged in 1979 and currently lives in Florissant, MO.
