Robert 'Rob' Sheahan enlisted in the United States Army in 1980, serving in the Infantry at Ft. Lewis, WA. Following his discharge from active duty, Rob served in the Illinois National Guard and was deployed to Iraq. He concluded his service with the Illinois National Guard in 2013.

For his service, Rob received three Meritorious Service Medals, three Army Commendation Medals and the Good Conduct Medal. The best advice he received was to "always treat people with respect and to always do the right thing". An interesting memory he shared was of being on the rifle range in Kuwait and looking at the horizon to see a herd of camels passing by.

In civilian life, Rob is the assistant coordinator at H.E.R.O.E.S. Care. He is married and has three children. He is a member of the local Elks Club and VFW and also a member of the American Legion in South Dakota.

Olde Towne Fenton Daughters are very proud to honor and recognize Sergeant Major Robert Sheahan as Patriot of the Month for his dedication, patriotism and service to our great nation.
