Chapter

Ronald H. Ulrich, III enlisted in the United States Army in January 2000, completing basic and advanced training at Ft. Leonard Wood, MO. Additional duty stations included Camp Howze, South Korea and Camp Liberty, Iraq where his primary job duty was route clearance, including locating improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

Upon returning from deployment, Ronald was selected to be an Army recruiter in Madison, WI. Once that assignment was completed, Ronald was assigned to the 1/395th Engineer Battalion at Ft. Hood, TX for the remainder of his service.

For his service, Ronald was awarded numerous medals, awards and citations including the Army Meritorious Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal with 3 campaign stars, Army Recruiter Badge gold with 2 sapphire stars and Combat Action Badge.

Margaret Miller Daughters are very proud to honor and recognize Ronald H. Ulrich, III as Patriot of the Month for his dedication, patriotism and service to our great nation.
